GREAT CROWDS HANDLED

OPENINGS AT LAGOON, SALTAIR AND CALDER'S.

Four Thousand Went Out to the Lake and Danced In the Big Saltair Pavilion-Lagoon Attracted 3,500 and Calder's 5.000 More-Day Was Enjoyed.

In all the giory of fresh paint and hard-scrubbed cleanness, Saltair was pened vesterday. Something like 4,000 copie took advantage of the first oppeople toos advantage of the list opportunity to visit the lake and the big pavilion. Probably twenty of that number were brave enough to take a dip in the water, but the others contented themselves with strolling about the building or whirling over the great dancing floor to the strains of Christensen's orchestra, which has been engaged for the season.

Those who went out were amply rewarded for their trip. Rariely has the lake presented a more attractive appeniance. A light breeze was blowing over the sun-kissed water and ruffling it into wrinkly little waves. The air was just cool enough to be pleasant.
In the sunshine it was warm, but inside the ravilion it was as bracing as wine.

Excursion Agent McKaig was on hand throughout the day seeing that everything went along smoothly. The appearance of things justified the belief that everybody had a good time. After 3 o'clock there was hardly a moment, except during the brief intermissions between dancen, that the ball room was not reasonably well filled with dancers.

the employ of the city as a defective, has been engaged to act as special policeman during the summer. George says he proposes to see that order is maintained, but as long as the fun is of a harmless nature he will allow it to go on unmolested.

Crowds at Lagoon.

It was an auspicious opening at La goon yesterday, the attendance ap-proaching 2,500. The train service was admirable and the management was constantly on the alert to see that the constantly on the alert to see that the large crowd was well taken care of. A fine orchestra was employed at the pavilion during the afternoon and even-ing to supply music for the great throng which found amusement in dancing, and another orchestra fur-nished music in the grand stand during the hell ware.

Since last season an immense amount of moncy has been expended on improvements and the resort is now one of the prettiest places in the state. There is not one unsightly spot about the grounds. The lawns and flower beds are handsome, the walks conveniently laid out and nicely graveled and at every turn the promenader finds a casy restful nook of some description. The trees are growing rapidly and splendid shade will this season be afforded. The numerous booths, pavilions, bowers and shaded retreats have all received attention, innumerable meats and lawn benches have been provided. The beautiful lake has dozens of handsome boats upon it and one of the finest hall grounds in the state has been laid out, fenced and equipped with the handsomest and largest grand stand in the west.

Amusements of different kinds have been provided and old and young alike Since last season an immense amount

Stand in the west.

Amusements of different kinds have been provided and old and young alike can find something to amuse them.

Quite a menagerie is being accumulated, also, and the management promises that this feature of the popular resort will be built up until, in the near future, its collection will be second to none in the west.

At present the bears' den on the shore of the lake is a great attraction. Then there are the handsome deer, the majestic elk, mountain Hons, wild cats, foxes, rare birds, etc., which are a delight to all. A cage of monkeys has just been added to the collection, but the weather is yet too chilly to put them on exhibition.

There is rejoicing in the family of A. Eik, Esq., of the Lagoon zoo. Yesterday there arrived an addition to the family in the person of a tiny baby eik. The little one is a sturdy rascal, brown of skin and beautifully motified. He is still a little shaky on his pins, and is diffident about showing himself in public, and not many people were aware of his arrival yesterday. A sinand is diffident about showing himself in public, and not many people were aware of his arrival yesterday. A singular coincidence in connection with his birth is that exactly a year ago yesterday an elk was born at Lagoon of the same parents.

The yearling elk was dubbed "Dewey" at his birth and is one of the friskiest members of the family. The newcomer has been named "Schley" by Manager Critchlow, in honor of our distinguished recent visitor.

Critchlow, in nonor of our distinguished recent visitor.

Manager Bamberger has about reached the conclusion that elk birthdays and opening days will be regular annual events at Lagoon hereafter.

Five Thousand at Calder's.

A large part of Salt Lake went out to Calder's yesterday afternoon to see the horses race and the bicyclists spin. There were thousands upon the grounds. They swarmed about the two tracks, about the stables, upon the secluded nooks about the lake and the hundreds did not go in the trac grounds at all, for they did not ca about races. The intoxication of fre-dom for a day was sufficient for ther It was away into the night before about races. The intoxication of freedom for a day was sufficient for them.

It was away into the night before many of them left. At the close of the races they spread out among the tables under the trees and drank beer and ate cheese and crackers for supper. For the dancing was to begir, in vigor and they hadn't time to go nome for decent meals. The fascination of the pavilian made beer and cheese and crackers a satisfactory supper to them.

The ladies were there in droves, and they filled the grand stand to overflowing. About the tracks and over the grounds their spring bonnets bobbed like a fisherman's corks upon a mill pond when the trout bite fast. They swarmed with escorts and without them, stood in carriages to watch the races of crowded out upon the track in imminent danger of being run over by the horses.

The small boys who don't care much for race horses spent their time rowing upon the lake, while their anxious mannings watched from the banks, fearful that the young hopefuls would fall overboard. And when they were tired of this sport they went to the merrygo-round, where they rode horses of their own.

There was entertainment of many kinds for people of many tastes, and over the whole scene the sun had come out to shed its kindly warming rays while Heid's band lent spirit to the cccasion with the old familiar tunes which it discoursed from the grand stand.

Ogden, May 30.—Ogden won the game with the Sait Lake nine today the score standing 4 to 2 in favor of the home nine.

It was one of the prettiest games ever played on the grounds. The only disagreeable features were a couple of wrangles over close decisions. One of these came near causing trouble. This was in the last inning when Sait Lake needed a run to tie the score. Two men were out and a man was on third, It was two strikes and two bails. The batter spat on his hands, tapped the mandest crowd of rooters and players that ever any one saw. He refused to be intimidated, however, and the bail as it curved out of his reach. Trouble Over the Matter.

Port Townsend, Wash, May 30.—Advices from Alaska, say Deupty Collector of Customs Andrews of Skaguny is having much trouble over the shipment of bonded liquor through that point. Large quantities of liquor are being shipped in bond by way of Skaguay to Dawson, and as United States convey charges are quite high, British Columbia shippers knowing that prohibitory restriction laws for Alaska will end July 1, have allowed large quantities of liquor to accumulate in the bonded warehouse to await the arrival of that date so it can be entered the same as other bonded goods.

The customs efficials claim that shippers cannot delay goods in transit awaiting the operation of the new law as regulations governing the movement of liquers in Alaska makes no provisions as the collector in the same appealed to Collector. The run was a long one and up hill, and the roof of the house was ablaze when the department got to the scene. Much of the furniture was carried out before the blaze had reached it, but there was considerable damage by water as well as by smoke and fire. There was no insurance on the furniture.

The indications are that the fire was caused from a defective flue. The house was a seven-room frame structure and the fire might have been a much more destructive one but for the efficient work of the fire boys.

By order of the board of directors.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 2, 1895. A boy named Burton received a broken leg as a result of getting run over by a bleyele. The lad was playing bail in the street when the wheelman came along just in time to strike him. W. G. Wilson left last night for Den-ver, where he will spend a week or two on business and picking up ideas for improving his Hermitage resort in the canyon. Several important improve-ments to the place are soon to be made. made.

During the patriotic entertainment in the Methodist church last evening the auditorium was crowded to its utmost unpacity, and there was considerable commotion caused by the fainting of a lady, who did not revive until she had been taken home and medical aid secured.
